

Learn the Art of Rug Hooking And Together as a Community, We will create A BEAUTIFUL RUG

During April Vacation we will be holding two FREE instructional sessions given by Mendon's own rug hooking expert Ellen Gould.

All Patrons young and old are invited to participate!

The finished rug will be raffled off to support
the Library's Relocation Project

The Friends of the Taft Library would like to thank Ellen Gould for not only donating her time and expertise, but for donating all of the materials and tools to make this project a reality.

INSTRUCTIONAL SESSIONS:

Tuesday, April 21 / 10:30 am—Noon

Thursday, April 23 / 3:30 pm—5:00 pm

Location:

The Children's Room at The Taft Public Library

Not able to attend one of the instructional sessions?

Don't worry, The rug will be on hand in The Children's Room for the entire vacation week ,and will also be available to be worked on thru Mid May. Rug Hooking is a fun and easy skill to learn. So come on in and take a try at it , and be apart of this cool community project!
